FREE OUTDOOR MOVIES RETURN TO COUNTY PARKS FOR 2009 MUST-SEE SUMMER SEASON

Monroe County Executive Maggie Brooks today announced that the County's "Movies in the Parks" series will return for the 2009 season this summer. This year, the Monroe County Parks Department will partner with New York State Senator Joseph Robach and local businesses Toshiba Business Solutions and AV Solutions to present the highly popular outdoor motion picture screenings at no cost to County Taxpayers.

"Our 'Movies in the Parks' series gives residents the opportunity to experience big-screen motion pictures under the stars in two of our finest County Parks," said County Executive Brooks. "Even in today's tough economy, quality summer-time entertainment doesn't have to be financially stressful. Thanks to the supportive partnership of Senator Joe Robach, Toshiba Business Solutions and AV Solutions, we are offering thirteen great movies this season, all free of charge."
